Scholarship Details

- A. The Eugene Biggio Memorial Drama Scholarship is for undergraduate study at a program or institution of dramatic arts education within the United States approved by Suffield Players, Inc. The recipient must be accepted or enrolled as a student to receive his/her scholarship funds. The number and amount of the scholarship awards will be determined by the income derived from the annual operations of Suffield Players, Inc.
- B. The scholarship funds may only be used to defray necessary costs of the student's education (i.e. tuition, books & supplies, fees and/or equipment required by the student's particular place of study).
- C. The scholarship recipient may reapply for the scholarship annually.
- D. Candidate may be requested to come in for an interview / review of their arts work. Requests for interview / review are only in cases in which the Scholarship Panel needs additional information on which they will base their decision. Not all candidates are requested to come in and lack of request does not indicate a candidate's likelihood of scholarship award.
- E. Scholarship checks will be issued upon receipt of a confirmation of enrollment for the next class program or school session. Suffield Players will issue the check to the program or institution in which the student is enrolled unless prior arrangements as agreed upon by Suffield Players. Paperwork must be submitted by November 1, 2018.
